

As a proud american born to this great land I truly believe the repealing of net neutrality will have negative adverse affects on the day-to-day life for now and many years to come. This smaller start-ups and innovators to be downtrodden and put at a disadvantage whilst giving the larger websites and isps to maximize revenue. once again it would be an extremely unfortunate idea to repeal net neutrality